The Cromeens Law Firm announces the addition of a San Antonio office

SAN ANTONIO, TX - The new offices for The Cromeens Law Firm in the Alamo City will be located at 2014 S. Hackberry St. #12B, San Antonio, TX 78210.

“Our San Antonio office will play a vital role in the growth of the construction industry in the South and Central Texas region,” says Karalynn Cromeens, Managing Partner. “As the recovery continues throughout Texas, construction is booming in residential, commercial and medical sectors.”

Forbes has named the corridor between San Antonio and Austin, as the next great metropolis, as many large technology and biomedical companies have relocated and built headquarters in this Texas corridor, which is transforming into a micro Silicon Valley. The booming real estate market is attracting buyers from around the globe and The Cromeens Firm is now here for all of them.

“The firm has seen a consistent increase in calls from the area by contractors, subcontractors and suppliers that need help with contracts, liens and collections,” says Cromeens. “Opening an office in San Antonio will allow us to better service the local construction industry.”

Founded in 2006, The Cromeens Law Firm, PLLC, an established, full-service, Houston-based law firm serves clients across the state of Texas. The firm is a member of the Houston Contractors Association, American Subcontractors Association, Houston Apartment Association and the National Association of Contractors. With a concentration in business, construction and real estate law, the all-woman attorney firm is committed to providing results-driven, cost-effective and personalized representation to each one the firm’s clients. Within her professional career, Cromeens has successfully filed more than a thousand lawsuits, with several being tried to a jury.

Adhering to the highest standards of honesty and ethical behavior, our mission is to truly understand each client's unique needs and go beyond expectations.

The Cromeens Law Firm provides skilled legal representation and valuable legal information in business law and contract disputes. Our attorneys work across jurisdictions in multiple languages around the state. Our attorneys have gained respect on both sides of the docket and have earned the trust and respect of judges and juries that have presided over cases we have handled.

“Our clients receive some of the most experienced and successful legal representation in Texas,” Cromeens says.
